HOW TO USE THIS ROADMAP

Think of this roadmap like building a house. You wouldn't start hanging pictures before you've poured the foundation and framed the walls. Marketing works the same way. Each phase builds on the one before it, creating a solid structure that can support real growth.

"Marketing doesn't have to be mayhem. It feels that way because there are thousands of people out there selling you their one magic solution."
— Clarence Williams

THE FOUR PILLARS

This roadmap is organized around the four fundamental pillars of marketing success:

Pillar	What It Does	When to Focus
Reputation	Builds trust and credibility	Phase 1 (Days 1-30)
Social Media	Creates visibility and connection	Phase 2 (Days 31-45)
Funnels & Website	Converts visitors to leads	Phase 2 (Days 46-60)
Paid Traffic	Accelerates what's working	Phase 3 (Days 61-90)

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Before diving into Day 1, answer these critical questions. Your answers will shape everything that follows:

- What specific result do you want from marketing in the next 90 days? (Be specific—a number, not 'more customers')
- Who exactly is your ideal customer? (One person, not a demographic)
- What's your realistic monthly marketing budget?
- How many hours per week can you dedicate to marketing?
- Are you going DIY, Done-With-You, or Done-For-You?

■ PRO TIP: Complete the Brand Voice Interview at brandvoiceinterview.com before starting this roadmap. Your brand voice is the foundation everything else builds on.

PHASE 1: FOUNDATION

Days 1-30 | Reputation & Brand Voice

Just like you wouldn't build a house on sand, you can't build effective marketing on a shaky reputation. This phase is about getting your digital foundation rock-solid before you spend a single dollar on advertising.

"Your reputation is the most controllable asset you have in business. You design it. You build it. You protect it."

WEEK 1: AUDIT & ASSESSMENT

Days 1-2: Reputation Health Check

- Get your free Reputation Health Report at scan.citationdashboard.com
- Google your business name—note what appears on the first page
- Check all your existing online reviews (Google, Yelp, Facebook, industry sites)
- Document your current star ratings across all platforms
- Identify any negative reviews that need responses

Days 3-4: NAP Audit (Name, Address, Phone)

- Create a master document with your EXACT business name, address, and phone
- Check your Google Business Profile matches this exactly
- Verify your website contact info matches
- Audit your top 10 directory listings for consistency
- Note any variations or errors to fix

Days 5-7: Competitive Analysis

- Identify your top 5 competitors
- Analyze their online presence (reviews, social, website)
- Note what they do well and where they fall short
- Identify opportunities they're missing
- Document insights in a competitive analysis spreadsheet

■ PRO TIP: Don't rush this assessment phase. The insights you gather now will save you thousands of dollars in wasted marketing spend later.

WEEK 2: GOOGLE BUSINESS PROFILE OPTIMIZATION

Days 8-10: Complete GBP Setup

- Claim your Google Business Profile if not already done
- Complete ALL fields—every single one
- Select the most accurate primary and secondary categories
- Write a compelling business description (750 characters max)
- Add your service areas or location details

Days 11-12: Visual Optimization

- Upload high-quality logo and cover photo

- Add at least 10 photos of your business, team, and work
- Include photos showing your products/services in action
- Add any relevant videos
- Ensure all images are properly sized and professional

Days 13-14: Products/Services & Posts

- Add all products or services with descriptions and pricing
- Create your first Google Business Post
- Set up a posting schedule (aim for 1-2 posts per week)
- Enable messaging and Q&A; features
- Set up appointment booking if applicable

WEEK 3: REVIEW STRATEGY & CITATIONS

Days 15-17: Review Generation System

- Create a simple process for asking customers for reviews
- Draft email/text templates for review requests
- Identify your 10 happiest recent customers to request reviews from
- Send your first batch of review requests
- Respond to ALL existing reviews (positive and negative)

Days 18-21: Citation Building

- Submit to major data aggregators (Neustar, Foursquare, Data Axle)
- Claim listings on top 20 general directories
- Claim listings on top 10 industry-specific directories
- Fix any NAP inconsistencies discovered during audit
- Set up citation monitoring (consider Citation Dashboard)

WEEK 4: BRAND VOICE & MESSAGING

Days 22-24: Define Your Brand Voice

- Complete the Brand Voice Interview (brandvoiceinterview.com)
- Document 3-5 words that describe your brand personality
- Write your brand story (why you do what you do)
- Define your unique value proposition in one sentence
- Create a list of words/phrases you use vs. avoid

Days 25-28: Brand Blueprint Document

- Create your Brand Voice Blueprint document
- Include examples of on-brand vs. off-brand messaging
- Document your target audience persona in detail
- Write 3 versions of your elevator pitch (15 sec, 30 sec, 60 sec)
- Share blueprint with anyone who creates content for you

Days 29-30: Phase 1 Review

- Run another Reputation Health Report—compare to Day 1
- Review all changes made and document improvements

- Ensure all citations are live and consistent
- Verify Google Business Profile is 100% complete
- Celebrate your wins! You've built the foundation.

PHASE 1 SUCCESS METRICS

- Google Business Profile 100% complete
- NAP consistent across 30+ directories
- 5+ new reviews generated
- All existing reviews responded to
- Brand Voice Blueprint documented
- Reputation score improved from baseline

PHASE 2: BUILDING

Days 31-60 | Social Media & Funnels

With your foundation solid, it's time to build the structures that will attract and convert customers. Think of social media as your storefront window and your funnel as the path that leads visitors inside.

"Your audience dictates your platform. Figure out who you're trying to reach, then figure out where they actually are."

WEEK 5: SOCIAL MEDIA STRATEGY

Days 31-33: Platform Selection

- Review your ideal customer persona—where do they spend time online?
- Research platform demographics (LinkedIn for B2B, Instagram for visual, etc.)
- Choose 1-2 PRIMARY platforms to focus on (not 5+)
- Audit your existing presence on chosen platforms
- Research 5 competitors' social strategies on your chosen platforms

Days 34-35: Profile Optimization

- Update profile photos to match your brand (consistent across platforms)
- Write compelling bios using your brand voice
- Add website links and contact information
- Complete all profile fields on each platform
- Create branded cover images/banners

Days 36-37: Content Strategy

- Define your content pillars (3-5 main themes you'll cover)
- Create a content calendar template
- Plan content for the next 30 days
- Decide on posting frequency (consistency > frequency)
- Identify content formats that work for your audience

■ PRO TIP: Don't try to be everywhere. Master one platform before adding another. A consistent presence on one platform beats sporadic posting on five.

WEEK 6: CONTENT CREATION & ENGAGEMENT

Days 38-40: Build Your Content Library

- Create 10 pieces of evergreen content
- Write 5 educational posts that solve customer problems
- Create 3 behind-the-scenes or personal story posts
- Design branded templates for quotes/tips
- Batch-create content for the next 2 weeks

Days 41-44: Engagement Strategy

- Set aside 15-30 minutes daily for engagement

- Identify 20 accounts in your industry to engage with
- Respond to all comments on your posts within 24 hours
- Join relevant groups/communities on your platforms
- Start conversations—don't just broadcast

WEEK 7: WEBSITE & FUNNEL ASSESSMENT

Days 45-47: Website Audit

- Test website load speed (aim for under 3 seconds)
- Check mobile responsiveness on multiple devices
- Review all pages for clear calls-to-action
- Verify all forms work and lead somewhere
- Check for broken links and outdated information

Days 48-49: Conversion Analysis

- Set up Google Analytics if not already active
- Review current conversion rates (forms, calls, purchases)
- Identify your most-visited pages
- Note where visitors are dropping off
- Document your current customer journey

Days 50-51: Map Your Funnel

- Draw out your current customer journey (awareness → purchase)
- Identify gaps where leads fall through
- Define what a 'qualified lead' looks like for your business
- Determine your main conversion goal (call, form, purchase)
- Plan your follow-up sequence for leads

WEEK 8: FUNNEL OPTIMIZATION & LEAD CAPTURE

Days 52-54: Lead Magnet Creation

- Identify your audience's biggest problem/question
- Create a valuable lead magnet (guide, checklist, video, tool)
- Design a simple landing page for your lead magnet
- Set up email capture integration
- Create a thank-you page with next steps

Days 55-57: Email Automation Setup

- Choose an email marketing platform (if you don't have one)
- Create a welcome email sequence (3-5 emails)
- Set up automated delivery of your lead magnet
- Write nurture emails that provide value
- Include clear calls-to-action in each email

Days 58-60: Phase 2 Review

- Review social media growth and engagement metrics
- Test your entire funnel from ad to email delivery

- Check all automations are working correctly
- Document lessons learned and adjustments needed
- Prepare for Phase 3: Paid Traffic

■■ IMPORTANT: Do NOT move to paid traffic until your funnel is tested and working. Paid ads amplify what you have—if your funnel leaks, you'll just lose money faster.

PHASE 2 SUCCESS METRICS

- 1-2 social platforms active with consistent posting
- Engagement rate improving week over week
- Website loads in under 3 seconds
- Lead magnet created and live
- Email automation sequence active
- Funnel tested end-to-end

PHASE 3: GROWTH

Days 61-90 | Automation & Paid Traffic

Now that your foundation is solid and your systems are built, it's time to add fuel to the fire. Paid advertising accelerates what's already working. But remember: it amplifies everything—including problems. That's why we waited until now.

"Paid advertising is an accelerator, not a foundation. If your foundation is shaky, paid traffic exposes your weaknesses and costs you money."

WEEK 9: TRACKING & MEASUREMENT SETUP

Days 61-63: Call & Conversion Tracking

- Set up call tracking (CallRail or similar)
- Create unique tracking numbers for each marketing channel
- Install conversion tracking pixels (Google, Facebook, etc.)
- Set up Google Analytics goals for key conversions
- Create a tracking spreadsheet for all metrics

Days 64-65: Define Your KPIs

- Calculate your customer lifetime value (CLV)
- Determine your maximum cost per acquisition (CPA)
- Set target conversion rates for each funnel stage
- Define what a 'qualified lead' is worth to you
- Create a simple dashboard to track weekly progress

Days 66-67: Pre-Launch Checklist

- Verify all tracking is working (test conversions)
- Confirm landing pages load fast and work on mobile
- Test email automation delivers correctly
- Check that call tracking numbers route properly
- Document your baseline metrics before ads go live

■ PRO TIP: Never launch paid ads without tracking in place. You'll be spending money with no way to know what's working. That's not marketing—that's gambling.

WEEK 10: PAID ADVERTISING LAUNCH

Days 68-70: Platform Selection & Setup

- Choose your primary ad platform based on where your audience is
- Set up business accounts and payment methods
- Define your initial daily/weekly budget (start conservative)
- Create audience targeting based on your ideal customer
- Research competitor ads for inspiration (Facebook Ad Library, etc.)

Days 71-74: First Campaign Launch

- Create 2-3 ad variations to test
- Write compelling ad copy that matches your landing page
- Design or select eye-catching visuals
- Launch your first test campaign with small budget
- Monitor daily for the first week

WEEK 11: OPTIMIZATION & RETARGETING

Days 75-77: Analyze & Optimize

- Review first week's campaign performance
- Identify which ads are performing best (CTR, conversions)
- Pause underperforming ads
- Increase budget on winning ads
- Create new variations based on what's working

Days 78-81: Retargeting Setup

- Set up retargeting audiences (website visitors, email list, etc.)
- Create specific ads for people who've already visited your site
- Launch retargeting campaign with tailored messaging
- Set frequency caps to avoid ad fatigue
- Test different offers for warm vs. cold audiences

■ PRO TIP: Retargeting typically converts at 2-10x the rate of cold traffic. You're not reaching new people—you're reminding interested people to take action.

WEEK 12: SCALE & SYSTEMATIZE

Days 82-84: Scale What Works

- Identify your most profitable campaigns
- Gradually increase budget on winners (20-30% at a time)
- Expand to similar audiences (lookalikes)
- Test new ad formats on winning platforms
- Document your winning formulas

Days 85-87: Create Ongoing Systems

- Create a weekly marketing review checklist
- Set up automated reporting for key metrics
- Document standard operating procedures for campaigns
- Create a content calendar for the next quarter
- Schedule regular review/optimization sessions

Days 88-90: 90-Day Review & Plan Forward

- Compare all metrics to Day 1 baseline
- Calculate ROI on all marketing activities
- Document biggest wins and lessons learned
- Identify areas for improvement in next 90 days
- Create your next quarter marketing plan

PHASE 3 SUCCESS METRICS

- All tracking systems active and accurate
- At least one profitable paid campaign running
- Cost per acquisition within target range
- Retargeting campaigns active
- Weekly review process documented
- Clear ROI on marketing investment
